

Japanese Brush Dyeing (Hikizome) with Plant Dyes

Mamiko Markham December 5th 2017 ULITA

Hikizome (Brush dyeing) is a traditional Japanese technique wherein a brush is used to apply the dye.

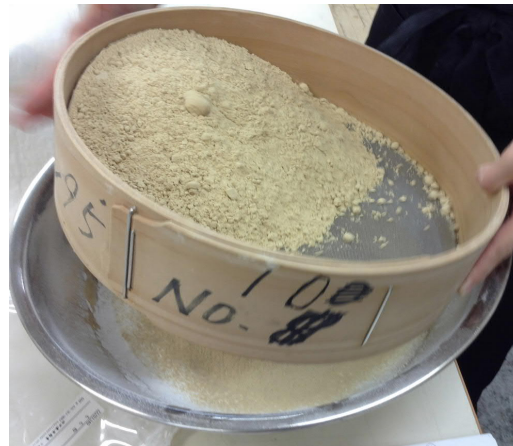

Making the glue

Ingredients

Glutinous rice 100g

Rice bran 100g

Water 100-150ml

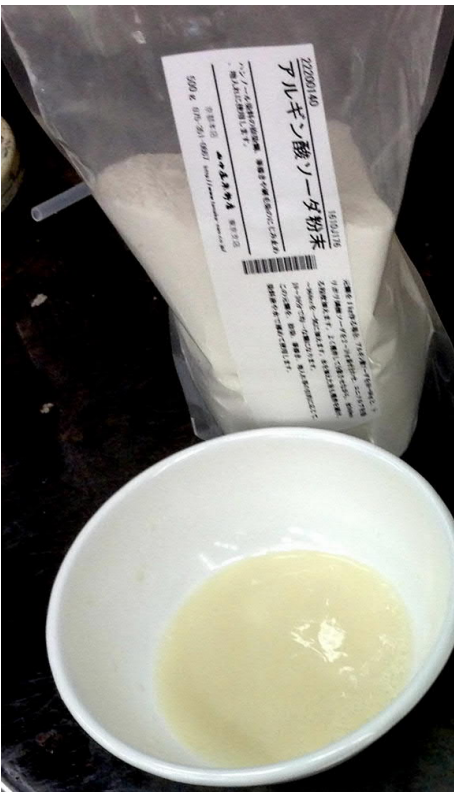

Applying the glue

Jiire(Sizing)

Ingredients:

- 50ml of soybeans in water
- 2g Sodium Alginate+200ml water
- 1000ml water

The basic way to make plant dye for brush dyeing

Logwood

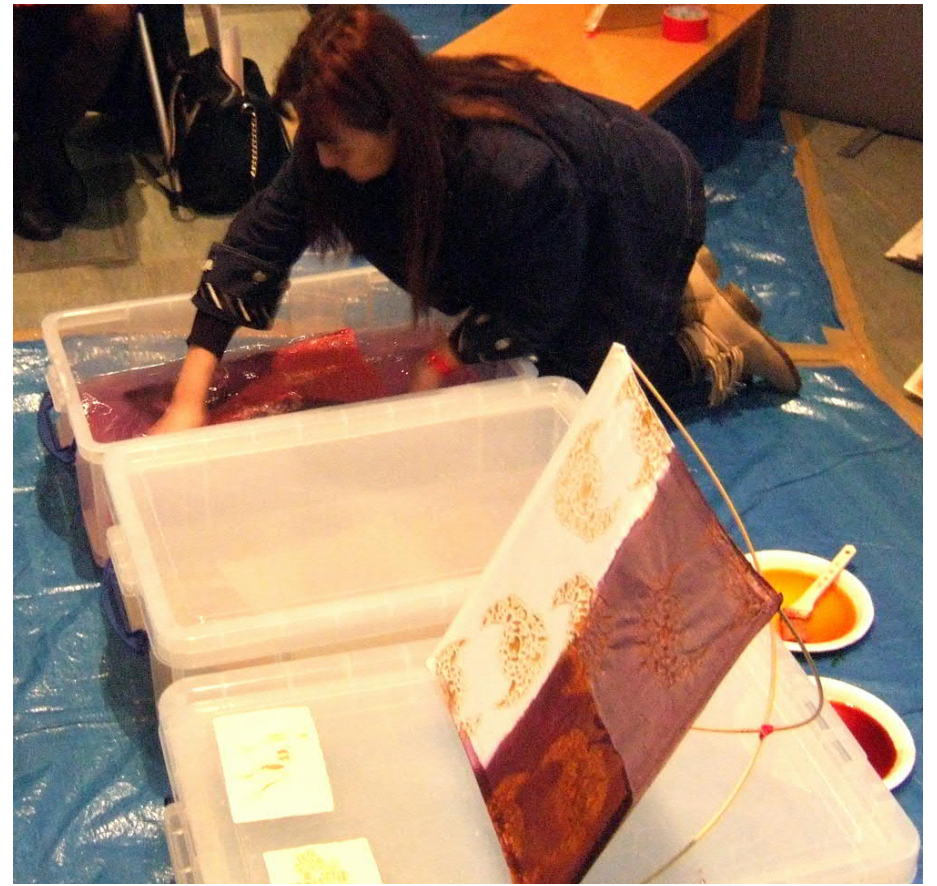

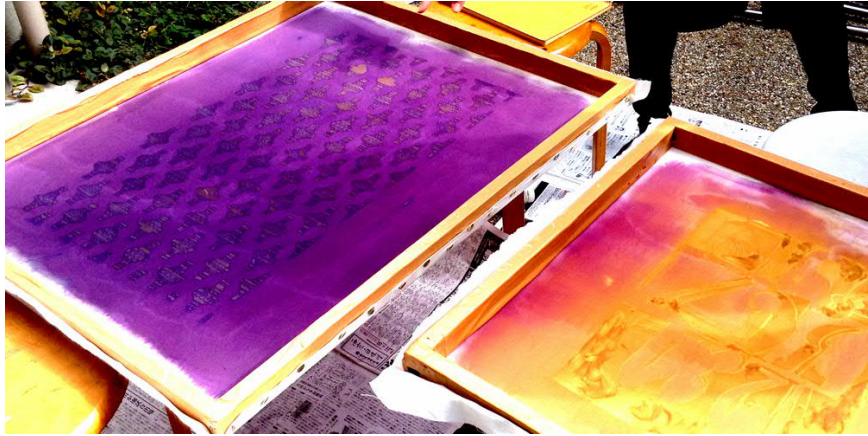

Sappanwood

Ingredients:

- 50g of dried plant
- 1000ml water or more

Dyeing

How to make natural mordant

Ingredients:
- 10g alum and
600ml water

